Farmer's Harvest

As I write this, Kendel and I are in Searcy, Arkansas at C-Harmony a Job Fair for Youth Ministry hopefuls and we are praying for one to come our way that will fit for us. If not, God will provide in the near future. There are over 200 interviews to be held in four hours. It is amazing to think there are so many churches in need of youth ministers and it is wonderful to know that churches are ready to provide their youth the extra help and direction that they need.

SNL was great. Thanks for all the help we received before, during and after everything was done. It was a great time and we had one count of 270 +. It was a great evening of singing and worship. I was very impressed with Matthew as he led us in song. He is a wonderful spirit as is Todd and all of you. I am looking forward to next year as well.

Prime Timers will have our Sweetheart Banquet Monday night. Please bring a dessert and be ready to sing some old songs out of the old books. I know you will enjoy this time together.

Back to the Basics class will begin on Wednesday February 4th in the Jr. High room. This class will be for anyone who wants to go back over the basics of why we do what we do as a church family.

Thank you for caring for my family the way that you do. Billie is going to have to have 24 hour a day care and we would appreciate your prayers on her behalf.

I love you all,
Britt

Isn't God good? With all of His wisdom, mercy and patience, he guarantees us that He knows just what we need. We are assured that He knows the plans that He has for us. My family and I have been studying Genesis this month and I have been amazed by God's faithfulness. Abram left his home and part of his family as God directed him to and, Hebrews 11 tells us it was credited to him as righteousness. Abram then lied about who Sarai was when they went to Egypt because he was scared that he would be killed. He told them that she was his sister. And yet God took care of them both. It is amazing to me that the man (Abram) who would leave home and family because God promised to bless him could then have so little faith that he would lie about being married. Not just once, but twice. And then, when he tried to make God's promises come true through human wisdom, God did not criticize him. Instead, God reaffirmed his blessing and...God was laughed at. And still God remained faithful. He kept His promise and kept his covenant not because Abram (Abraham) was perfect, but because of God's faithfulness and Abraham's faith. So, how does that relate to us? The Bible promises us that we, too, have an advocate who speaks to the Father on our behalf. At the times that we are not righteous, He is. At the times that we are not faithful, He is. And at the times we fail, his answer is, "My grace is sufficient." So now for the $3 question, how's your faith? Remember, faith comes from hearing and hearing by the word of God so my challenge for the week, get into God's word. Not just 3 hours on Sunday, but a deep down, serious study. Hebrews 11, by faith all these people were declared righteous. Have a great week in Him, Todd
