Farmer's Harvest

Happy New Year from the Farmer Clan! It is starting off as a great and wonderful opportunity for growth and spiritual strengthening. We have been given the opportunity to move forward into a year of evangelism and take hold of the opportunity to be outside our comfort zone and share the gospel with the lost of our community. I hope you will take part in one aspect of our outreach for 2009 in some form or another. We are in need of help for this to work for the glory of our Father in Heaven.

Also, Back to the Basics will begin meeting in the library next month on Wednesday nights. This class will be open to anyone who would like to attend. We will be studying about why we do the things we do. If this class is for you, come and be a part.

Prime Timers will meet this Monday night, January 12th, at 6:30 p.m. in the fellowship area for a Britt's Chili night. Be sure to bring fixings for Chili and desserts for the evening. We will be meeting on February 2nd for our Valentines Party where the youth will serve us and we will have a time of Valentine Bingo and other games to play. I love being a part of this group if nothing than a "Mascot" seeing I am not really "Old Enough" to be included.

I look forward to seeing you here Sunday. Bring your Bible and INVITE, INVITE, INVITE! It is time to share our faith with our neighbors and the lost of our community.

I love you all,
 Britt

TEEN BEAT

I'm sure you heard about it by now. At first I thought it was a hoax or a made up story to prove a point but it turns out it is real. Back on January 3, the headline read, Connecticut man's last lotto ticket wins $10M for widow. (Yahoo news).

As it turns out, a man went to the 7-11 store as part of a 20 year tradition and bought 2 lottery tickets. Later in the day, he suffered a fatal heart attack and died while working in his yard. His widow almost threw the ticket away but, on a chance, decided to check it almost 2 months after his death. When she did, she found out she was a multi-millionaire.

So now you can see why it sounds like a set-up. In Matthew 6, Jesus is quoted as saying, Mat 6:19 "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." A few verses later he adds, "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own."

In Matthew 13:44-46 we see the rest of the story, "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls. When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it."

So now, the question. What kind of treasure are you building? The kind that stays behind for someone else to spend? According to the article, his widow was planning a trip to the casino to celebrate. His son commented, "He'd be very mad, he just passed away and she won a lot of money. He'd say, 'Figures!'. Or is your treasure something more tangible? Something worth everything we have? My challenge this week, check your priorities. Then you can see where your treasure truly is.

In Christ, Todd
