Farmer's Harvest

I really appreciate the kind words and encouraging statements concerning last Sunday's lesson. One person mentioned they had "never heard it put that way before." I am just hoping the lessons are meaningful and thought provoking enough to help us be interested in studying God's word. Keep it up and lets learn together.

This next Sunday is Easter Sunday and we should have a large crowd here to be with us. Be sure to make them welcome with a smile and a handshake of a friend. I pray we can reach out to those who need to be here.

I had the opportunity to spend Monday with two of my sons, Jeff and Tim at the Ballpark in Arlington for the opening ceremonies of Major League Baseball. Cleveland was in town with their Cy Young award winning pitcher and lost to our Rangers. That was good, but something else was great. When President George W. Bush walked out onto the field to throw out the first pitch he received, and deservedly so, a standing ovation from the Texas crowd. All our presidents, past and future, deserve to be honored among men as leaders of our free nation. We don't have to agree with them, but God said "give honor to whom honor is deserve." Pray for all our leaders and ask God to bless them in their decisions.

Prime Timers will be going to see Texas in June. Be sure to sign up so we will know how many tickets and rooms to get.

*I love you all,
 Britt*

TEEN BEAT

Paul noted a mistake I made last week, it was Joshua, not Gideon who said, "Choose you this day who you will serve, as for me and my house, I will serve the Lord" (Joshua 24:15) And according to Chris, in my most recent sermon, I had Moses in the ark at one time. He wondered how old that would make him when he was placed in the basket in the river. But, rather than risk any more foot in mouth disease this week, I figured I would simply pass on a few proverbs sent to me by my mother. They may not all make you smile but if they don't, it may be that they are hitting too close to home. Anyway, have a great week and please pray for all of us while we are at LTC.

- > Don't let your worries get the best of you; Remember, Moses started out as a basket case.
- > Some people are kind, polite, and sweet-spirited until you try to sit in their pews.
- > Many folks want to serve God, but only as advisers. It is easier to preach ten sermons Than it is to live one.
- > The good Lord didn't create anything without a purpose, but mosquitoes come close.
- > When you get to your wit's end, You'll find God lives there.
- > People are funny; they want the front of the bus, middle of the road, and back of the church.
- > Opportunity may knock once, but temptation bangs on the front door forever.
- > Quit griping about your church; if it was perfect, you couldn't belong.
- > If a church wants a better preacher, it only needs to pray for the one it has.
- > Peace starts with a smile.
- > I don't know why some people change churches; What difference does it make which one you stay home from?
- > A lot of church members singing 'Standing on the Promises' are just sitting on the premises.
- > Be ye fishers of men. You catch 'em - He'll clean'em.
- > Stop, Drop, and Roll won't work in Hell.
- > Forbidden fruits create many jams.
- > God doesn't call the qualified, He qualifies the called.
- > God grades on the cross, not the curve.
- > God loves everyone, But probably prefers 'fruits of the spirit' over 'religious nuts!'
- > God promises a safe landing, not a calm passage.
- > He who angers you, controls you!
- > If God is your Co-pilot, swap seats!
- > Prayer: Don't give God instructions, just report for duty!
- > The Will of God never takes you to where the Grace of God will not protect you.
- > We don't change the message, The message changes us.
- > You can tell how big a person is By what it takes to discourage him.

In Him, Todd
