Church of Christ

A Family with a Big Heart!

Farmer's Harvest

Here we are at Camp Hensel as I spend my twelfth Father's Day as a member of the Central Texas Christian Camp in Marble Falls, Texas. It has been great so far as I write on this Tuesday morning. It has been a little warm to say the least, but it has been so rewarding. The acapella singing group Legacy led us in praise and worship last night for ninety minutes and none of us have a voice left. We praise God for the ability of these young men. They are some of the best young men you would ever want to meet and more than anything, they love God and love singing to praise him.

All our group send their love and are all doing well. Tina Davis may be arriving later than the rest of us due to a total misunderstanding about the church bus trip down here. Just ask her, she'll tell you about it.

Tony is doing wonderful and spoke at an evening devotional to the Senior Campers here at CTCC. I am so proud that he has given his life back to God and is back to his own self. (I also have all four of my grandsons with us here this week which Marmee (Lisa) is enjoying entirely too much. I miss her attention sometimes too.

I appreciate all those who filled in for me in my absence. Todd is an outstanding teacher, youth minister, and speaker and is blessed with a great family, as well. I love the work that he does with our youth and the youth who are here this week. It is great.

This Sunday I will be speaking out of Hebrews again and looking at the man, Jesus. Keep me in your prayers as I prepare this lesson. Bring your Bibles and prepare to dive deeper into the word of God to find the truths he is leading us to.

You are a wonderful family of God. Thank you for loving me and my family.
 Sincerely yours,
 Britt Farmer

TEEN BEAT

Most of our family is at camp Hensel this week where we, along with the Talleys, Farmers, and Sheldons are working at the Central Texas Christian Camp (along with many others). Several of the Henrietta youth are here as well including one "accidental" one. I say accidental because we did not know that she would be here and she did not know we would but, Sunday night as I was walking around camp looking for a few of our kids to unload their stuff from the bus, I looked over and saw the most shocked, surprised look on the face of a young lady I recognized from my class at school. I don't know how many of you know Jessica Davila, but she has been in a unique situation that has had her living at Foster's home in Stephenville for most of the past year. As part of that group, she came to camp. And on Sunday, the surprise was heightened as a couple of the kids we took were her close friends.

We can celebrate even more, however because since being at Foster's, Jessica's house parents are members of the Church who have been working with her, studying, praying, etc. And, on Tuesday, Jessica was baptized into Christ for the forgiveness of sins. The even better part is, she will be moving back to Henrietta in August where she will now have a built-in support group.

But that shows us also that we can never underestimate the power of our influence and the fact that somebody is always watching you, as a Christian. We are told in scripture to let our light shine. We are also told to always be ready to give an answer for what we believe to any and all. While Jessica was never open to the gospel at school, imagine what might have happened if I had been less than a Christian example, or if those in our group had and then we had shown up here? This story might have had a very different outcome. The moral? Live for Christ. You never know who will be watching, listening, and learning.

In Him, Todd
