Farmer's Harvest

I am going to say this one more time. I love Christian Camping and I loved QMCC. I don't care where I have been to a camp, I have come away with a deeper love for God and our Youth and those who are striving to help mold them into what God wants them to be. Thank you, my Shepherds, for allowing me the time to be in those situations. They are refreshing and motivating. What a great week for soul saving. Five young ladies were immersed into Christ this past week. Lauren Booher, Jackie Lathem, Melissa Echols, Kelsey Clark, and Lindsey Booher are now our sisters in Christ and a part of our Christian family here in Henrietta. Elders, Deacons, and Ministers: We will be meeting at the Clay County Senior Center at 8:00 a.m. We will have some donuts and coffee. Lunch will be at 12:00. I am looking forward to this time together and the work we are going to get done. We will have Burgers by Mike for lunch and should be through before dinner time. Please do whatever you can to be there. Speaking of Mike, Mike and Leann Skinner are going to be cooking lunch for those who come to the September 9th work day here at the building. Bring your work gloves, hoes, shovels, and other outdoor and indoor cleaning supplies. We need to take care of what God has given to us. If you are interested in attending the worship services September 14th at the Allred Unit in Iowa Park you will need to sign up by August 10th to get in. I will be speaking and our ladies will be singing and others have expressed an interest in attending so make sure you get on the list in the foyer. Also, Prime Timers remember the Johnny High Trip August 16th. We are not getting many to sign up early so remember, the deadline to take the charter bus is August 3rd. If we have to, we will take the church bus and other transportation if we have less than 40 people. Please keep me in your prayers.

I love you all,

Britt

TEEN BEAT

As you read this, August is upon us and summer is nearly over. Sports are starting within a week, and school within a couple. Those who have already graduated will be moving off to college in many cases while those of us left behind will be back to our regular routines of trying to pass another test, another class, another year.

It seems that too often in our walk as Christians, that is also true. We go through brief moments in time where our walk with the Lord seems more special, more tight, more familiar. But at other times, it seems we are just simply going about our routine of religion and being religious. At these times, there is nothing remarkable, nothing special. It is just getting through another day.

But is that what God called us to? I would challenge anyone who thinks so to read Philippians chapter 2. Paul said a lot about making his joy complete by being like minded in Christ as well as about Christ's example of self sacrifice. He also mentions that because of his attitude, Christ has been exalted above all.

As we get ready to go back to school, to sports, to our routine, daily lives, I would challenge you to read and reread these words. If we do, our religion will never become one that is routine; rather our faith will be the thing that sustains us despite the drag of daily life. Nurture your faith, strengthen and encourage each other, and never grow weary. These are the challenges of the Bible.
In Him,
Todd

*Thank you so much for the potted plant you sent in honor of our mother. Words are inadequate to express the deep love we feel for our Christian family. There was a cross included in the plant that said "Joy". It is truly a joy and a peacefulness to know that mother rests in the arms of Jesus. Thank you for the prayers, love and concern for our family.
Ronnie & Cathy Davis*

*Thank you all so much for the graduation gift. Each and every one of you hold a special place in my heart and I will always enjoy coming back to Henrietta to see how my home church has grown over the years, both in size and in spirit. I can only hope that your love and support will continue to encourage me in the future as much as it has in the past.
Thanks again for your thoughtfulness.
With Love, Charly Jackson*
